

PHASE 4: Evaluation

1. After finishing the activities, visit the evaluation form on Google Forms to reflect on the knowledge and skills you acquired while working on this scenario.
2. The results of the evaluation will be posted on our class blog
3. Below there is a print version of the form

Tick the box that best describes your feelings about the project:
1. Which part of the project did you most enjoy?
<input type="radio"/> A stroll around the European Museums <input type="radio"/> Let's talk about history: a radio broadcast <input type="radio"/> A night in the museum: the story
2. How were you involved?
<input type="radio"/> I recorded a podcast <input type="radio"/> I contributed to the collaborative story <input type="radio"/> I did some research <input type="radio"/> I made a presentation
3. How did you use the internet and web tools?
<input type="radio"/> to do some research
<input type="radio"/> to get help with language difficulties
<input type="radio"/> to create a production
<input type="radio"/> to collaborate with partners
<input type="radio"/> to express my opinions
4. What is true about you?
<input type="radio"/> I improved my fluency in English <input type="radio"/> I extended my general knowledge in history and civilization <input type="radio"/> I improved my ICT skills <input type="radio"/> I can work better in a team <input type="radio"/> I feel more confident in communicating in English <input type="radio"/> I learnt while having fun
5. How do you feel about your participation in the project?
1      2      3      4      5 indifferent <input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/> enthusiastic and proud of my work
6. What is the most valuable thing you learned thanks to this project?
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
7. What would you change in future projects to make them more interesting?
.....
.....
.....

.....
.....
.....
.....